As one of the gasoline launches was coming up the Humber Arm Saturday night, she collided with a dory, both occupants of which had a narrow escape from drowning. All motor boats should be provided with lights, which should be displayed when the boats are in motion.—Western Star.

The fare of salt herring of the Lunenburg, N. S., sch. Juanita, now loading at Bay of Islands, N. F., has been sold to Boston parties, to arrive.

The Nova Scotia schs. Eva June and Roland G. Smith are to go to Bay of Islands for frozen herring cargoes.

An ocean race to the Bay of Islands began at Lunenburg, N. S., a week ago Monday, between five of the best schooners of the Lunenburg fishing fleet, and terminated Friday when the last vessel arrived at her destination. Sch. Earl V. S., Capt. Zinck, arrived Thursday and has the credit of the quickest trip. Schs. Lila D. Young, Defender, Margaret E. Schwartz and Colonia were the other schooners engaged in the contest. They are all out for cargoes of herring and the race was only a friendly competition among the captains.

The tug John Morrison arrived at Portland Sunday from Wood Island with sch. James Freeman with a cargo of salt herring for C. A. Dyer Co.

Mackerel Notes.

The fare of Bay mackerel of sch. Corsair sold to Harvey C. Smith & Son at $27 per barrel for mediums.

The boats and traps at Liverpool, N. S., took 8000 mackerel on Friday.

Mackerel struck in along the western shore near Halifax, N. S., Saturday so thick and unexpectedly that no big hauls were made by the seines. The latter were dry and sunk slowly and it is said that this, coupled with the fact that the fish were so plentiful, prevented any being taken, the seines failing to sink until the fish had passed. Mr. Johnson of Portuguese Cove, got 1600 or 1700.

Fishing Fleet Movements.

Sch. Teazer is at Portland today with 7000 pounds of halibut.

No Little Herring for Sardine Packing.

A despatch from Eastport, Me., says that the scarcity of fish with which to supply the sardine canning factories of Eastport, Lubec and other canning centres, will probably cause an early closing of the packing season, unless the herring appear soon. They seem to have deserted the waters of Passamaquoddy Bay, which they usually frequent in large numbers at this season, and fishermen from New Brunswick and other provinces report the catch as unusually light and uncertain.

The fish have appeared in extensive schools at various places along the coast, only to disappear as soon as the fishermen get there with their outfits.

Want a Fishery Board.

The fisheries committee of the Halifax board of trade had a conference with Hon. W. S. Fielding recently, urging upon him the desirability of the appointment of a fishery board to act under the department of marine and fisheries for the regulation and control of Canadian Atlantic fisheries. Mr. Fielding promised consideration.

EARLY RETURN.

Is Scheduled for the Gresham from Bay of Islands.

Ice Breaking Probably Not Part of Her Programme

It is definitely announced that the United States revenue cutter Gresham which is at Bay of Islands, N. F., with Mr. A. B. Alexander on board, observing the herring operations of the American fleet, is to return to Boston December 16. Mr. Alexander will probably remain later.

This date set for the return of the Gresham is much earlier than the return date of the Potomac last year or the Grampus the previous year, and would seem to indicate that the craft is to leave before the ice forms in the bay or comes down and blocks the mouth of the bay and gulf, from the Labrador.

From this announcement it would seem that it is none of the government's programme to have a craft remain and break ice for the vessels which may be caught in the bay and arms, as was the case last year, when the Potomac rendered such conspicuously good service.

Deserve Every Cent They Get.

Captain Anstruther, of H. M. S. Brilliant, in a blue book writes: "It is a marvel to me how the Newfoundland fishermen do work at all in the sort of weather one gets on the west coast of Newfoundland. Blow high or low, it makes no difference to them. In hail, sleet, frost or snow, they fish steadily on as if they were made of flesh and bone. They are a hardy folk and deserve every cent they get."

As Capt. Anstruther has been at Bay of Islands during several herring seasons, he, without doubt, is fully competent to judge.

Oct. 31.

LARGE HADDOCK STOCK.

Nov. 2.

MONSTER POLLOCK FARE.Sch. Patriot, Capt. Doleman, Weighed Off 71,000 Pounds.

Sch. Patriot, Capt. Allen Doleman, which arrived yesterday afternoon, with the biggest fresh pollock trip of the season, weighed off 71,330 pounds.

The vessel came out of Boston late Thursday afternoon, bound for the Ridges, for a pollock fare. Outside the Graves she became almost becalmed and drifted over toward Minot's light. The cook put over a line and soon pulled up a pollock. He did this several times and then some of the crew thought they saw some flips in the water. Some of them went to the rail and in a short time were hauling in pollock hand over fist.

Capt. Doleman figured that this was good enough for him, without going further, so he anchored his craft and all hands stood to the rail until 7 o'clock Friday morning, when the anchor was hove up and the craft started for home.

"The fish came fast and furious all night and the crew worked until they were completely tuckered out. Some idea of how fast they came can be figured from the fact that the high line man pulled in an average of one pollock every minute for the whole 12 hours they were fishing. It was probably a night's pollock fishing for all hands which has never been excelled.

Nov. 2.

Good Stocks.

Sch. Priscilla, Capt. Fred Wolff, in five weeks pollocking has certainly made some money, for in that time her cook has made $235, the high line man $165 and even the low line man has made $90.

Sch. Yakima, Capt. Alfred Green, has stocked $6600 in five weeks, in the market haddock fishery.

Nov. 2.

Mackerel News.

The imports of new salt mackerel at Boston to date are 14,447 barrels against 28,417 barrels at this time last year.

The imports of fresh mackerel to date are 7420 barrels against 17,851 barrels at this time last year.

BAD WEATHER BROKE TRIP.Sch. Alice R. Lawson Had Dories Swept from Deck.

Sch. Alice R. Lawson, Capt. Robert Winslow, one of the dory handline fleet, arrived home here Sunday with a broken fare, caused by the hardest kind of weather.

The vessel left here on her second trip September 9, and ran right into the spell of bad weather, taking the terrible gale in which sch. Sceptre was lost off Scatteri.

As previously stated in our Louisburg letter, last week, the craft while at anchor was struck by a very heavy sea, which swept her deck of everything movable, including all her 18 dories.

The vessel made port at Louisburg, and being without apparatus to continue the voyage, gave up the trip and came home.

Nov. 4.

Salt Steamer Arrives.

The British steamer Armenia arrived yesterday from Trapani, with a large cargo of salt, 3050 tons, consigned to the Gorton-Pew Fisheries Co. The captain reports a rather rough passage all the way, but made a good run, being but 22 days on the passage.
